WESTLEY COURT LUXURY APARTMENTS

Westley Court luxury apartments stand in four acres of Worcestershire countryside in the parish of Cookley, Kidderminster looking out to Clent on the one side and Kinver Edge on the other. The house and the apartments are built on the site of Clee Hall, built about 1750 and which, became the home of the Westley family of Dudley who gave it the present name of Westley Court.

Before the present luxury apartments were built, Westley Court was a well known Hotel and Restaurant. There was a period when it was a Casino and dignitaries with Royal connections and Celebrities from stage and screen were often to be seen playing at the tables.

The location is 17 miles from Birmingham, and 16 from Worcester, and is situated on the A449, two miles north of Kidderminster.

Westley Court is a complex of 75 apartments, built in 1989, and administered by Westley Court Management Ltd, a company whose shareholders are all owners of the apartments, and whose directors are residents or relatives of residents.

This is not a retirement complex, but the apartments are most suitable for the 55’s and over. The one and two-bed roomed apartments are surrounded by beautiful gardens, and there is parking for 64 cars. There is a large communal lounge, a restaurant, a bar and a TV lounge, where Sky TV is available.

The apartments are on four floors, serviced by two lifts. Each apartment has one or two en-suite bathrooms, a fitted kitchen with built-in washer-dryer, a fridge with freezer compartment, oven and hob with an extractor fan. Immersion heaters and night storage heaters are on the cheaper tariff. All windows are double-glazed, and walls are insulated. Lounges and kitchens are open-plan, and each apartment has a beautiful view.

Security is paramount. Our reception desk is manned 24 hours a day throughout the year, and CCTV cameras operate in the grounds. There is a visiting hairdresser, a chiropodist and a mobile library. Post, milk and papers are delivered daily to your door, and local tradesmen deliver groceries, fruit, vegetables and fish, as well as frozen food supplies. A laundry and dry cleaning van calls weekly. Domestic help is also available.

The Restaurant provides lunch daily, and meals can be delivered on a tray to those apartments that need this service. An emergency call system operates by which residents can get immediate help from Management, Staff and an on-site Nurse.

Westley Court has an active Residents’ Association, which arranges social events and runs the bar, on the “honesty book” principle. Musical evenings, talks, concerts, afternoon teas, coffee mornings and outings take place throughout the year, and the Christmas Party and the Carol Concert are two of the most popular events. Coffee is available in the Lounge every morning, as are newspapers.

You need never be lonely at Westley Court, but the choice is yours: you can be as private as you wish.

We have residents whose age ranges from the mid fifties to the nineties, and all enjoying life in this lovely corner of Worcestershire.
